

VALID HELP IF YOU DECIDE TO GET IN OWN - Creaimpresa

The potential entrepreneur needs reliability and practicality, as they start their entrepreneurship requires the skills and expertise that can not be improvised.

Many now compete in services for business creation. But how many really know the world of small and medium-sized enterprises?

The changes of the market, technology (think of the Internet) and the enactment of regulations that have an increasing number of expected job requirements for the start-ups, have made it necessary to develop more specialized consulting services.

For this reason that over time the CNA has designed and built a range of services to meet the needs of entrepreneurs. First of all structuring in two locations in Lucca and Viareggio which provide advice and services in the territory of the province of Lucca.

Since 2003, CNA has created, in two locations, a point of excellence of the service aimed at young entrepreneurs, called the service "Creaimpresa".

The start-ups are accompanied in their constitution through a free initial consultation. The areas of advice, ranging from the world of craft, SMEs, self-employment (non-business).

Compared to the latter was set up a special committee called CNA in proprio protection professionals without accredited professional (such as consultants, interpreters, etc.), following the evolution of the market which has seen growth figures in business support but that businesses are not.
